

Dedicated to all future Potty Experts

-Dr. Laura and Julia

Duplication and Copyright

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording or otherwise without prior written permission from the publisher except for all worksheets and activities which may be reproduced for a specific group or class. Reproduction for an entire school or school district is prohibited.

P.O. Box 22185
Chattanooga, TN 37422-2185
423.899.5714 • 800.477.8277
fax: 423.899.4547
www.ncyi.org

ISBN: 978-1-931636-75-9
© 2011, Amazing Me Books, LLC
All rights reserved.

Written by: Julia Cook and Laura Jana, M.D.
Illustrations by: Anita DuFalla
Design by: Phillip W. Rodgers
Published by National Center for Youth Issues
Softcover

Printed at RR Donnelley • Reynosa, Tamaulipas, Mexico • February 2011

About This Book

All too often, potty training poses a challenge for both adults and children alike. That's where You and Me Against The Pee comes in. This book, told through the eyes of a young child, presents the task of "potty learning" in a new light by motivating children to become smarter than their poop and their pee. Based on the key concept that everyone involved should always be on the same team, readers young and old learn how to work together to avoid getting tricked, and ultimately win the "Potty Game." You can now put an end to frustration by putting pee and poop in their proper place!

It is our sincere belief that in order to teach a child, you must enter his or her view of the world. We have thoroughly enjoyed creating this book and hope that it will make a positive difference in the lives of many future Potty Experts.

Let the games begin!

– Julia Cook and Dr. Laura Jana

"You sit on the potty and read a book.
When you get finished,
you take a look."

The best part happens
when you get done.
You get to flush!
It's so much fun!

Oh, and don't forget to wash your hands!"

"But how do I win?"
I asked.

