Name ____________________________________________   Date_______________

Determination Interview

PART 1
Directions
Think about someone you know who is a hard worker. This should be a person that has worked hard to accomplish their goals. This person might have had challenges in their life and overcome these challenges.

Write the name of the person you are interviewing:
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

How do you know this person?
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

PART 2
Directions
Ask the person you are interviewing the following questions:

What are 2 things you have done in your life that have taken lots of determination and hard work?

1.  _______________________________________________________________________
2.  _______________________________________________________________________

What advice would you give about sticking with it to accomplish a goal?
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

How do you show determination in your life each day?
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Signature of Person Interviewed

© National Center For Youth Issues • wwwNCYIorg • 866-318-6294
Please refer to page 2 for duplication information