

Finding a career is difficult. Where do I start?

This workbook is the perfect companion to the “What Shoes Will You Wear?” storybook. Full of activities and worksheets, this fun book assists children in starting on the pathway of being college and career ready. The skills addressed in this book are important for career development and are essential elements in preparing kids for success in life!

FOR USE WITH
*What Shoes
Will You Wear?*
By Julia Cook
ISBN: 978-1-937870-32-4

Julia Cook, M.S. is a national award winning children’s author, counselor and parenting expert. She has presented in over 800 schools across the country, regularly delivers keynote addresses at national education and counseling conferences, and has published over 70 children’s books. The goal behind all of Julia’s books and efforts is to actively involve young people into her fun and creative stories and teach them to become life-long problem solvers. Inspirations for her books come from working with children and carefully listening to parents and teachers.

Sarah E. Altman, M.S. Ed has been a school counselor at Sycamore Elementary School in Indiana for the past 10 years. She has also served on the Indiana School Counselor Association Board for five years. Sarah resides in Indianapolis, living with her husband and two children.

Heidi Roselle, M.A. Heidi Roselle, M.A. is currently an elementary school counselor in Southern California. Her interests include supporting career identity development in children and adolescents.

Sarah I. Springer, LPC, ACS has worked as an elementary and high school counselor throughout New Jersey, is completing her PhD, and is transitioning to the position of assistant professor in the Counseling Psychology Department at Temple University.

P.O. Box 22185 • Chattanooga, TN 37422-2185
423.899.5714 • 866.318.6294 • fax: 423.899.4547 • www.ncyi.org

