To Chris – With Love, Julia

Funding to underwrite the development of this storybook has been generously donated in honor of...

The Sarah T. Butler Children's Center at the Pastoral Institute of Columbus, Georgia is dedicated to the mental health and well-being of children ages 1-18. This center provides comprehensive services that span psychological testing, intervention, therapy groups, and counseling. In all our activities we seek to inspire growth through faith, hope, and love.

DUPLICATION AND COPYRIGHT

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopy, video or audio recording, or otherwise without prior written permission from the publisher, except for all worksheets and activities which may be reproduced for a specific group or class. Reproduction for an entire school or school district is prohibited.

NCYI titles may be purchased in bulk at special discounts for educational, business, fundraising, or promotional use. For more information, please email sales@ncyi.org.

P.O. Box 22185 Chattanooga, TN 37422-2185 423-899-5714 • 866-318-6294 fax 423-899-4547 • www.ncyi.org ISBN: 9781937870522 F-book ISBN: 9781953945082

Library of Congress Control Number: 2018957417

© 2018 National Center for Youth Issues, Chattanooga, TN • All rights reserved.

Written by: Julia Cook • Illustrations by: MacKenzie Haley Technical Advisor: Melissa A. Reeves, Ph.D, NCSP, LPC Published by National Center for Youth Issues • Softcover

Printed at Starkey Printing, Chattanooga, Tennessee, U.S.A., March 2021

The information in this book is designed to provide helpful information on the subjects discussed and is not intended to be used, nor should it be used, to diagnose or treat any mental health or medical condition. For diagnosis or treatment of any mental health or medical issue, consult a licensed counselor, psychologist, or physician. The publisher and author are not responsible for any specific mental or physical health needs that may require medical supervision, and are not liable for any damages or negative consequences from any treatment, action, application or preparation, to any person reading or following the information in this book. References are provided for informational purposes only and do not constitute endorsement of any websites or other sources.

Have you ever felt like I do?

My flame used to be bright and strong... but now, it's just a flicker.

I have all of these dark clouds hovering over me, but they don't feel like clouds.

To me, they feel like mountains.

I try hard to push them away, but they keep coming back... and I'm so tired of trying.

"You know, a brighter flame can lighten up those heavy clouds of yours. Then, they'd be easier to push away."

"You can see them too?"

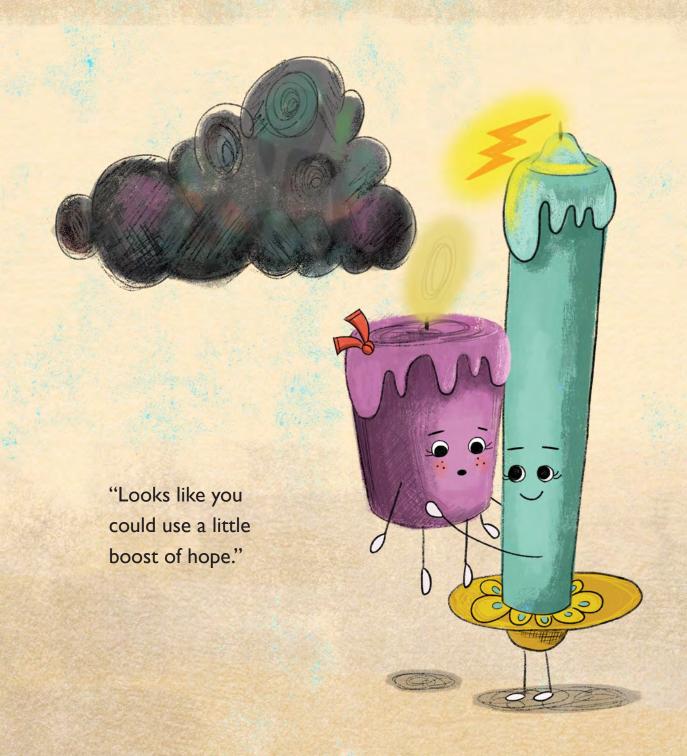

"Nope, they're your clouds...only you can see them. But I can tell your flame isn't very bright right now."

"How do you know?"

"It's not the 'how I know' that matters... it's the 'what I know."

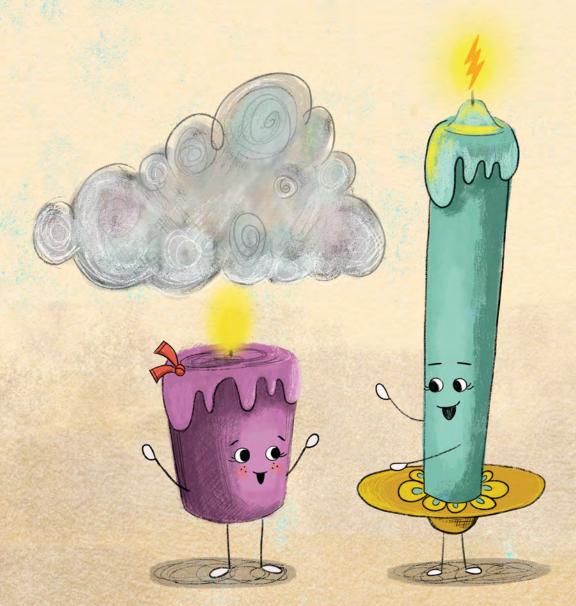

"How'd you do that?"

"Since you are standing right underneath your clouds, all you can see is dark.

They may seem impossible to move."

"But when you reach out for help, others can share their gifts with you! Amazing things can happen when we use our gifts."

"Gifts? What gifts? I don't have any gifts."

