

People will tell you what they think you should be,
Paths you should take, based on strengths they can see.

“Hey—you look like a nurse, a pilot, a waiter.”

“You should play soccer or be an ice skater!”

But what if that's not what YOU want to be?

Can you shape your own dreams for the you that YOU see?

You don't have to worry
what others might say.

If you chase your own dream
and go your own way.

There is no “right” path that everyone must take.

You will go through hard times and make some mistakes.

Try college or trade school, or create your own way.

Wherever you land, you can learn every day.

Maybe your mission is to make the world better?
The world needs your heart, so be a go-getter!

If helping others is what you want to do,
showing kindness can make your heart happy, too.
